

THE BLUES DAY

By: Savanah & Aliana

March 14th ,was the saddest day of our lives because our favorite music teacher died.His name was Kevin Coward.We called him Mr.Coward.

He was the best music teacher EVER!!!!He was unique.On the last rotation we remember when he said I'll see you on the next rotation.Now we wont see him in music.

We all miss Mr.Coward and we want him back.We wish he could have a second chance to live.

He taught us about deserts. He taught us about deserts because everyone thought they were poor. Mr. Coward said if you are poor you have no food and clothes you have to wear cloth. I want him back I miss him SO MUCH.

This is the end of our sad story. Thanks for reading.
